PHONES TAKEN OUT ALL OVER TOWN

PEOPLE UNITED IN PROTEST AGAINST RAISE IN RATES NEW SYSTEM PLANNED

It is war to the knife between the people of Stanford and the East Tennessee Telephone Company. Following a visit here Tuesday of George G. Hall, manager of the Kentucky business of the company with headquarters at Louisville, and his refusal to recede from the increase of rates made upon the local patrons who desire county service, the formal demand of the business men and citizens for removal of the phones from their premises was filed upon the company's local management, and Wednesday the work of removing the instruments began. Another mass meeting was held at the court house Wednesday night. It was more largely attended than any of the others, and vigorous speeches were made condemning the company for its violation of agreement, and the citizens were emphatic in their declaration that they will stick together on this proposition and fight the matter out to the finish.

The committee, composed of Messrs. G. L. Penny, W. S. Burch and A. B. Florence which had conferred with Mr. Murphy had no insurance on his household goods.

New Ordinances

PASSED BY COUNCIL UPON REQUEST OF WOMEN.

Strong ordinances favored by the Women's Improvement League and the Anti-Tuberculosis Association were passed at the regular meeting of the City council last week. Upon suggestion of the Women's League, which was represented before the meeting by Mrs. J. J. Dickey the council passed an ordinance prohibiting loafing around the depot, and fixing a fine of from $2 to $10 upon conviction.

Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, on behalf of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association suggested an anti-spitting ordinance, prohibiting expectoration upon the sidewalks, and this was passed with a penalty of $1 to $10 upon conviction.

The council paid the Stanford Water Light and Ice Company's bill for lights for the city for the past six months amounting to $1,750.

The tax levy was fixed at 75 cents in the city, the same rate as last year.

Tax Collector B. D. Carter received his quietus from the city for collection of taxes. The total amount collected was a little over $7,000.

The ladies who went before the body were anxious to have an ordinance enacted providing that property owners shall have the snow and slush cleaned off their sidewalks in bad weather, but it was shown that there is already an ordinance on the books and the council ordered it rigidly enforced.

The question of prosecuting the E. T. Company for its operation in the city without a legal franchise was brought up and this will undoubtedly be met at once. County Attorney Finch stated that the company has no franchise; nothing more than a permit from the Fiscal Court—to use the roads of the county for the erection of its poles. It is probable that a meeting of the Fiscal Court will be called at once, to take some cognizance of this state of affairs.

Some of other citizens, who did not sign the first agreement are now notifying the local exchange to have their phones removed for with no telephone communication possible with the local stores, offices etc., telephones in the residences will be practically useless.

TAKE CARE!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. Mr. Miller, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put more life and strength into me and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years.

It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and lessens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure." Shugars & Tanner.

LINCOLN BANKS MAKE FINE SHOWING

ALMOST A MILLION IN DEPOSITS AT FIRST OF YEAR—NEW DIRECTORS ELECTED.

Lincoln county people seem to have plenty of money, notwithstanding the tightness of the money market over the tobacco situation. If the reports of the banks as made on the 1st of the New Year can be taken as a criterion. The reports of the nine financial institutions of Lincoln showing money on hand at the close of business on December 31, 1910 shows that they have the nice and tidy sum of $709,404.88 belonging to the people of Lincoln county and vicinity on deposits in their vaults. No bad showing to say the least.

Nearly all the Lincoln banks elected directors for the ensuing year at stockholders' meetings during the past week. Change of the State Banks do not have their annual election of directors at this time, but choose them later during the year.

The Lincoln County National Bank received a telegram from the Comptroller of the Treasury last week officially notifying it that its application to increase its capital stock to the $100,000 figure had been approved and that it was duly authorized to do business henceforth as a $100,000 bank.

At the election of the Lincoln directors, the old board was re-elected and three new members added, all men prominent in financial and of substantial business interests. They are W. M. Matheny and W. M. Bright of this city, and E. P. Owsley, of Columbus, Ga.

The First National Bank of Stanford, re-elected the old board with has resigned owing to the fact that the exception of E. C. Walton, who has moved to Orlando Fla. New members added to the board were J. C. Embanks, one of the best known and most substantial farmers of Lincoln county and C. R. Coleman, one of the largest mining operators in Eastern Kentucky, and a resident of Stanford.

The Crab Orchard Banking Company, that sterling financial institution of the East End put on Josh Wilson to fill the vacancy caused by the death, of J. N. Singleton, during the past year. Mr. Wilson is one of the best known and most substantial farmers of that section.

The two Hustonville banks, both showing fine reports, elected their new boards and these in turn elected the old officers.

Bank Stock Sells Well

QUITE A BLOCK SOLD TO SETTLE LUNSFORD ESTATE.

Stock in three Lincoln county banks sold well at the sale conducted here Monday by Mrs. Mattie Kirby as executrix of the estate of the late Miss Rhoda Lunsford. W. H. Shanks bought two shares of the Lincoln County National Bank at $201; 25 shares of the First National Bank sold as follows: C. R. Coleman 19 shares at $448; Mrs. Molle and Miss Dillie McRoberts 5 shares at $448; S. T. Harris and J. S. Hocker 5 shares at $147.50; Mrs. Kirby two shares at $118 and 5 shares at $150. Five shares of the stock of the State Bank & Trust Company were bought by Rev. J. J. Dickey and wife at $162 and W. P. Logan paid $102 for two shares, considered a good price for this stock as the bank has hardly been organized over three months.

Mr. Baughman will remain in Atlanta during the winter and will return here this summer to buy more mules and horses for the southern markets, in which he is getting thoroughly established.

I tried everything. I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. ## MANY CONGRATULATIONS WHOLESALE HAUL FOR "GOOD MAMMIE" OF FLOUR AT MILL

UPON CELEBRATION OF HER 92 EX-COVT BREAKS IN AT NIGHT BIRTHDAY—IS NOBLE MOTH-ER IN ISRAEL.

AND WILL GO BACK TO FRANKFORT.

The relative and friends of Mrs. E. Percy Stewart, who just finished M. Spoonamore gathered at her home out a two years' term in the penitentiary, to celebrate her 92nd birthday & Buchanan, stole five or six hundred dollars. "Good Mammie," as she is familiarly known, is ex-convict Saturday night and as a exceedingly well preserved. Her mind consequence has another nice prison record.

She is one of the very few who reach Carter and Meeks landed Stewart at such an age with all the faculties for a clever bit of work, and recover her. She knows the genealogy of all much of the flour which he had made one and they left for Florida back to the time when James Monroe was president, there having been a Stewart effected entrance to the four presidents before his time and mill Saturday night by forcing open it only takes a little stretch of the window. In disposing of his loot he imagination to see that by tradition told those to whom he sold it that he she knows the history of Washington, had been working at the mill and had well remembers some costly dinner plates her father Jno. Miller, bought with Gen. Lafayette's picture in them as souvenirs to Lafayette's visit here during James Monroe's presidency.

She tells many interesting war stories which were told by some of the Revolutionary soldiers. She has seen ago in a rather suspicious way, but and talked to many of the heroes of the way of 1812-14. She was ten years old when Old Hickory Jackson fare well in this instance.

This is the second time Stewart has been arrested since coming home from the pen, which seems not to have taught him a lesson. He was mixed up with some chickens belonging to Land & Buchanan a few weeks ago when Old Hickory Jackson fare well in this instance.

Stewart waived examination before the hero of the battle of New Orleans and was held to grand jury under $200 bond. Will Lee, a Turnerville negro, who was arrested as a possible accessory of Stewart, was acquitted but Phoebe Craig was given 30 days for receiving stolen property.

Huffman-Thompson

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE SURPRISE THEIR MANY FRIENDS

ELECTED TO DIRECTORATE OF HENRY CLAY FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Quite a surprise was occasioned last week when news was received here that Miss Kit Huffman, youngest daughter of A. G. Huffman of this city was quietly married to Bragg Thompson, son of Crab Orchard. It had been known that the popular young couple had been sweethearts for some time but no one was surprised of the fact that they were preparing to wed this soon.

Without saying anything save to their closest relatives, the young couple fled away to Louisville and were made one and they left for Florida where they will spend the balance of the winter with an uncle of Mr. Thompson's. After that they will probably return to Crab Orchard to make their home.

The bride is one of the most popular of the young girls of Stanford and is very attractive and stylish. The groom is of a prominent East End family, and both will have the best wishes of a host of friends as they go together through life.

■ HENRY BLANKENSHIP. ■

In loving remembrance of dear father.

The death angel called and took from our midst our beloved and only parent, October 31st, 1910. It was hard, so hard, to pass the Christmas holidays by without our dear father whom we almost idolized. He was 78 years old and was a faithful and consistent member of the Baptist church, always in his seat ready to do his Master's will and he departed for the brighter shore with the exclamation, "well done, thou good and faithful servant." Truly a good man has come to his reward, and his life is worthy of emulation now that his spirit has returned to the God who gave it. May He in His infinite wisdom give succor and comfort to his dear children and the many others who loved him because of his many virtues and magnificent citizenship.

I know that his many kind words have helped the poor and needy time and again; to us his words of encouragement have been helpful and lightened to no little extent the burden and care of a busy life. We regret, as do all who knew him that he is no more but believing that the righteous and faithful are justly rewarded so well, to wish him back to the scenes of life, where pleasure is of so short duration and joy is only for the time.

The loss of dear father has cast a gloom over the community. Preachers will in which place he lived. We know how much he is missed in the happy home. Death is sad at all times but, as, so sad to part from our only parent who was our dear father, and to give up the one who did so much for the happiness of others. But while sorrowing we should rejoice for we know he has gone to be with dear mother where he will begin life anew in the land that is fairer than day. Does not his memory comfort and his accomplishments inspire us to overcome as he did and attempt great things. His Savior will hold us, the Holy spirit will comfort us. His promises will support and his love will reconcile and at last in His own good will He will bring us all together in the mansions above.

Ah, listen to God as he speaks to us by the sad province. Let him teach us the lesson He would have us learn that we may be ready to answer when He calls come home.

On Tuesday, Nov. 1, at two o'clock the removal of the beautiful flowers which hid from view the casket in which he lay as if asleep; the casket was closed and his face was hidden from the dear children and grand children that loved him so dearly. But we shall see his face again. Then began the removal of the great train of carriages that reached almost from the home to the cemetery where the body was deposited and the sad returned to the home whence the empty

Her hills are high, and rough and steep
And down her fields the winds do sweep
Her blue grass grows the earth to hide
But her sage grass fields stretch far and wide.

The girls all thirt
The boys all shirk
The women all talk
And the men won't work

But I'll put this place against any

Town

For the boys to guzzle red liquor down

And this is done by the very best
I take my place among the rest.
A great place for religion and p
ties as well.

Then the boys get drunk and all
raise hell

It has produced noble men both great
and true
Such as Mary Middleton and Tim
Buck too.

Crab Orchard is not what it used to be

For we used to have saloons you see

Put now if you want a drink in town
You've got to run a bootlegger down

The country man comes to this place
With horsey hand and ruddy face,

And says "boys to be dog is an awful pest."

But I've got a quart of Walker's best

Is that all? We had better get more
And go down back of Peckin store,

To go that I'm hairy able.

Suppose we stop in Gove's stable.

That quart is gone; is another handy?

I don't know; call Bill Mac or Andy.

Just either one of them you choose.

And get another quart of booze.

Bruce from the bootlegger is awful
mean,

Composed of carbolic acid, potash
and parisgreen,

But still he's bought by the poor and rich.

But he will go to — the

When satan is bound a thousand years

And God shall wipe away all tears.

And peace shall come to sons and daughters.

I hope Crab Orchard will be headquarters.

Crab Orchard is the place of all the rest.

The place for me that I like best;

Of all the places I've ever found.

This is the place for me all 'round

Good-bye dear friends I close my dity

To those both near and far away

Come bring your knitting and stay

all day.
